

Believing God for New Breakthroughs in 2012!

As I run the race set before me, I praise Jesus for being the author and perfecter of our faith (Hebrews 12:1-3) and for giving me such a wonderful team to run with... partners in His race to the finish line: the goal to win the prize for which God has called me (and you). (Philippians 2:12-14)

Please be praying for these dreams in 2012:

- STORYWAVE training to be launched around the world to mobilize the next generation to reach the unreached.*
- Speaking and Radio ministry to grow to influence more in using Bible Storying in the USA and around the world.*
- Set apart for His purposes in my intimate times of prayer and The Word.*
